Music Nominee:

Congratulations on your nomination for the 2019 Governors' Honors Program. Your audition date has been scheduled for Monday, November 5, 2018, at the North Springs Charter School of Arts and Sciences. The directions to North Springs are listed below. Please note some important information to help facilitate the local interview process.

- Please arrive at least 30 minutes prior to the audition time provided by your GHP counselor.
- Please bring a prepared solo. Pieces that are classical in nature are most appropriate. For voice, musical theatre and popular songs should be avoided.
- Accompaniment is required for voice and optional for instrumental prepared pieces. Recorded accompaniment on cassette or CD may be used. Live accompaniment is not allowed for local interviews.
- The audition will also include sight reading and an interview.
- Parents may not wait in the holding room or interview area; we have reserved the theatre for parents who wish to wait.
- By accepting this nomination, you are committing to meet all deadlines shared by your school's GHP Coordinator to participate in all levels of interviews for which you qualify, and to attend all components of the 2019 GHP. Please note that district-level and statewide interview dates are set and cannot be rescheduled for any reason.
